

Proclamation 2015-05
NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER 2015
City of Brevard, North Carolina

WHEREAS, civic prayers and national days of prayer have a long and revered history in our constitutional republic, dating back to the First Continental Congress in 1775; and,

WHEREAS, the Declaration of Independence, our first statement as Americans of national purpose and identity, made “the Laws of Nature and Nature’s God” the foundation of our United States of America and asserted that people have inalienable rights that are God-given; and,

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court has affirmed the right of state legislature to open their sessions with prayer and the Supreme Court and the U.S. Congress themselves begin each day with prayer; and,

WHEREAS, in 1988, legislation setting aside the first Thursday in May in each year as a National Day of Prayer was passed unanimously by both Houses of Congress and signed by President Ronald Reagan; and

WHEREAS, May 7, 2015, marks the 64th consecutive observance of the National Day of Prayer; and,

WHEREAS, the National Day of Prayer is an opportunity for Americans of all faiths to join in united prayer to acknowledge our dependence on God, to give thanks for blessings received, to request healing for wounds endured, and to ask God to guide our leaders and bring wholeness to the United States and her citizens; and,

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper to give thanks to God by observing a day of prayer in Brevard when all may acknowledge our blessings and express gratitude for them, while recognizing the need for strengthening religious and moral values in our town, state and nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jimmy Harris, Mayor of the City of Brevard, proclaim Thursday, May 7, 2015, as A Day of Prayer in Brevard, North Carolina, and encourage the citizens of Brevard to observe the day in ways appropriate to its importance and significance.

Proclaimed this the 7th day of May, 2015.

Jimmy Harris, Mayor

ATTEST:

Desiree D. Perry, City Clerk
